

The 2009 Alpinist Film Festival Entry Form

THE ALPINIST FILM FESTIVAL (AFF) honors the late Barry Corbet's athletic and artistic spirit with films that celebrate the adventure lifestyle across disciplines and generations. The AFF's mission is to advance the art of cinematographic storytelling as it underscores the unity among the adventure lifestyle communities. We donate proceeds from every AFF (nearly $30,000 to date) to non-profit organizations that foster well-being in the places of our inspiration. The unique spontaneity of the Festival—up to 1,000 people at a time gather to watch the films in one of Jackson Hole's premier theaters—creates a dynamic interaction that has become the festival's hallmark.

The first three nights of the 2009 AFF will be held at the 800-plus seat Walk Festival Hall in Teton Village. A fourth evening, at the Center for the Arts' renowned 525-seat Performing Arts Pavilion in downtown Jackson, will feature the People's Choice awards from the previous three evenings. Furthering the AFF's audience participation, the audience will choose the Festival's Grand Prize from among the People's Choice winners.

In 2009 the AFF will expand its national tour, reaching new audiences across the nation while retaining the unique look and feel of the Master Festival, including a cocktail hour with New Belgium beer, a live DJ, silent auction, and presentation of films by "star" athletes.

FILM SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

GENRES The AFF celebrates the adventure lifestyle in three disciplines: Snow (skiing/snowboarding); Surf (surfing); and Stone (climbing). The unique interaction of the audience, the filmmakers and the evening's films creates a singular dynamic that has become one of the Festival's hallmarks. Filmmakers who emphasize cinematographic storytelling with their projects are encouraged to submit their films in one or more of the three genres to the AFF.

ENTRY FEES In recognition of the fact that filmmakers often over-allocate financial resources for their projects, entry fees for the 2009 AFF will be waived.

AWARDS A signature feature of the AFF is the audience's participation, which extends to the determination of each year's award winners. At the beginning of every evening of the Festival, ballots are distributed to the audience, who fill them in and hand them back to the organizers at the evening's conclusion. The resulting tallies determine each evening's People's Choice award winner for the particular genre of Snow, Surf and Stone. A fourth evening—The People's Choice Ceremonies—will screen the People's Choice award winners from the previous three evenings; the audience will select the AFF Grand Prize winner from these films.

DEADLINE Submissions must be received by November 22nd, 2008, unless otherwise arranged.

RETURN OF MATERIALS Unless arrangements are made in advance, the AFF does not return submitted materials.

PRIOR SCREENINGS The AFF seeks to screen world premieres whenever possible. Previously screened films are accepted for consideration, but please indicate where and when previous screenings have occurred.

LANGUAGE Films must be presented in English at the time of screening. If the media's original language is other than English, professional subtitles and/or voiceovers must be provided in English.

PREVIEW FORMATS The AFF accepts only DVD formats. DV tapes, Laser Discs, and/or any other media-based formats will not be accepted.

EXHIBITION FORMATS Accepted films must be in one of the following formats: DVD, Mini DV, BetaSP, Digital Beta and HDCam (please note: PAL/SECAM NOT accepted). It is the sole responsibility of the entrant to make sure the accepted film is in the proper format for the actual screening. In addition, accepted films must be accompanied by a 30-second to two-minute film trailer or excerpt in Mini DV NTSC or Quicktime (10-bit uncompressed NTSC) format that can be used for promotional purposes. In the event of an incompatible format, please notify the AFF organizers as soon as possible.

FESTIVAL CUTS Short versions of feature-length films or festival cuts (less than 30 minutes TRT) are encouraged for submission. Festival cuts allow for an increased chance of selection by allowing for programming flexibility.

TOUR Unless the filmmaker indicates otherwise, all films accepted for exhibition in the AFF will also be considered for submission in the AFF Tour. Agreements and arrangements for tour screenings will be negotiated following initial acceptance into the AFF. The agreement is non-exclusive and for theatrical exhibition only.

NOTIFICATION Upon receiving and reviewing submitted films, The AFF will respond with notification of acceptance via email, phone and/or mail within thirty business days.

SHIPPING MATERIALS Please do not submit films in fiber-filled envelopes, as the dust from these packages damages VCRs and other tapes. The AFF will not accept submissions mailed in fiber-filled envelopes.
